

LLI Continues Its Training

The District's Lay Leadership Institute continues its work to develop lay leaders from around our beloved District. As has become the norm, the instructors and students meet at Faith in Pierre. Students finished their classes in Old Testament, taught by Rev. Lloyd Redhage, and Fundamental Pastoral Care, taught by Rev. Brad Urbach. Students also began two new classes, one a reprise of the New Testament Class taught by Rev. Darren Olson, and the other a new offering, Church History I, from the time of Christ to 1500 AD, led by Rev. David Otten. These classes will run to September 19th. The Fall session will include classes in Teaching the Faith, and Mission Outreach in Context, and will also begin on Sept. 19th. Look for registration materials in August. For information on the Lay Leadership Institute, go to the District's website at sd.lcms.org or contact Rev. David Schwan, chairman of the LLI committee. Others on the committee are Gretchen King and Jim Kaufman.

